

June

1

Summer is the perfect time for fun and relaxation. Write about some of the fun things that you want to do this summer.

June

2

Pretend that a candy bar company wanted you to invent a new candy bar. Draw a picture of your new candy bar and list all of the ingredients.

June

3

Imagine that you could take a summer vacation to a far away place. Write a short story about where you would go and what you would take with you.

June 4

Imagine that you were chosen to clean up your city. Write about one thing that you would do to help make your city a better place?

June 5

You found a pair of magic shoes in a treasure chest. Write a short story about the special powers that these shoes had.

June 6

People love surprises. Write about a time when you surprised someone in your family.

A decorative border surrounds the page, featuring a repeating pattern of smiling suns, various flowers (purple, pink, red, and white), and a central illustration of a yellow drink with a red and white striped straw and a lemon slice. The border is composed of colorful, wavy lines.

June 7

Think about the worst thing that you have ever eaten. Now write about what it was like before and after you ate it. Remember to use specific details.

June 8

Try to remember a dream that you have had when you were sleeping. Write about all the things that you can remember from that dream.

June 9

Summer can be a hot time of the year. Write about some of your favorite things to do when it is hot outside.

A decorative border surrounds the page, featuring a repeating pattern of smiling suns, various colorful flowers (purple, pink, red, yellow), and a central illustration of a yellow drink with a red straw and a lemon slice. The border is composed of these elements connected by thin, wavy lines.

June 10

Water can be so refreshing in the summertime. Draw a picture of water as a solid, a liquid, and a gas. Be sure to label each picture with the words Solid, Liquid, and Gas.

June 11

A new student comes into your class and is very shy. Your friends start to make fun of the student and laugh. Write about how you would treat the new student.

June 12

There are lots of fun sports and activities to play outside. Write about your favorite sport and tell why you love it.

June 13

Think about someone that loves you very much. Write a list of 10 different ways that they show love to you.

June 14

Imagine that you found a lost dog without a nametag. Write a story about how you would handle this situation.

June 15

Would you rather be a Bee or a Lizard? Explain.

A decorative border surrounds the page, featuring a repeating pattern of smiling suns, various colorful flowers (purple, pink, red, yellow), and a central illustration of a yellow drink cup with a red and white striped straw and a lemon slice. The border is composed of these elements connected by thin, wavy lines.

June 16

Think about your favorite memory at school. Tell about your favorite memory using details about what happened and who was there.

June 17

Bullies are people who do not treat others with respect. How do you deal with a bully when they are mean to you?

June 18

Think of a number that has a special meaning to you. Write about why this number is special.

June 19

If you could plant your own garden and grow anything you wanted, what would you grow?

June 20

Think of a something that you know a lot about. Now, pretend that you are a teacher and write a lesson plan that will teach other kids about what you know.

June 21

Think about a special flag that means a lot to you. Now, draw a picture of that flag and tell why it is important to you.

June 22

If you could be better at one thing, what would it be? Write about one thing that you want to be better at.

June 23

Would you rather swim in a pool of marshmallows or swim in a pool of chocolate? Write about what this would be like.

June 24

Imagine that you could run 100 miles per hour. Write about what your life would be like if you could run that fast.

June 25

Write about a make-believe camping trip where animals can talk.

June 26

Write about a day at an amusement park with roller coasters, rides, and food.

June 27

Imagine that you were the parent and your mom and dad were the kids. Write about how you would treat them and what your life would be like.

June 28

Pretend that you had an elephant for a pet. Write about what it would be like to have an elephant as a pet.

June 29

Your family is throwing a big party for you. Write a list of 5 things you would want at your party.

June 30

Think about someone in your life that seems sad. What are some ways that you could cheer them up and brighten their day?

